HARDINGS AT SEA VIEW FOR DAYS OF REST

Republicans Have Done a Lot and Will Do More,
President Says

ABERDEEN, N. J., May 13.—President and Mrs. Harding today were enjoying a weekend rest at the Sea View golf club, near here, after their automobile trip from Washington yesterday and the president's appearance at the dinner given by the women's Republican club of New Jersey, and the bankers convention in Atlantic City last night.

Secretary and Mrs. Weeks and Attorney General Daugherty have arrived and complete the official party, to which Senator Edge is host.

Republican leaders here were interested in the address by the president at the women's club dinner. His expressions of friendship for the state's two senators were noted.

"The administration," he said, "is not better supported anywhere than it is in New Jersey. I have more than a personal fondness for Senators Edge and Frelinghuysen. I cannot always beat them at golf, but I know where to find them when there are difficult problems to solve."

"I hope," he added, "you people think as much of them as the executive in Washington does."

San Diego Cop Passes Bogus Paper as Hobby

Disguised As Honest Workman He Orders Bill of Groceries and Gives
Bad Check

SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 13.—H. S. Stafford, a deputy constable here for many years, is today in jail awaiting sentence on a charge of passing a fictitious check on a local grocer.

Evidence given at the trial, which resulted in a verdict of guilty yesterday, showed that after selecting some grocery store that had just changed hands, Stafford put on an old gray cap and worn clothing, and carried a workman's collapsible lunch box, that he called on the new grocer, chatted about neighborhood affairs as if he lived near, ordered groceries or other goods worth a few dollars and tendered a check which proved to be worthless.

Five local grocers said Stafford defrauded them in this manner. Having made his purchase, it was alleged, Stafford would leave the store, change clothes, appear again as the deputy constable and start working on the case.

$50,000 SUITS FILED AGAINST POLICE CHIEF

Unions Ask $200,000 for Alleged False Arrest and Jailing

CONFESSION CLAIMED

Disappearance of One Indicted Leader Surprise to Department

CHICAGO, May 13.—Four damage suits for $50,000 each, alleging false arrest and imprisonment following police raids on the headquarters of the Chicago Building Trades Council on last Wednesday, were filed today against Chief of Police Fitzmorris and other directing officers of the department. The actions are in behalf of Emmett Flood, a general organizer for the American Federation of Labor, his son, a member of the Fixture Hangers' union, and his daughter, all of whom were taken into custody.

ONE HAS ESCAPED

The escape of one of the eight labor leaders indicted on charges of murder in connection with the reign of bomb and gun terrorism, and rumors that confessions had been obtained from several of the scores of prisoners still being held by the police, marked investigation of recent lawless outbreaks which have been blamed on labor warfare in the building trades.

The sudden departure from the police ken of "Jerry" Horan, indicted with Fred Mader, president of the Building and Trades Council, "Big Tim" Murphy, head of the Gas Workers' union and out on bonds following his conviction and sentence to the penitentiary on a charge of mail robbery, and Cornelius "Corky" Shea, who directed the 1904 teamsters' strike, was first noted when the indictments were returned.

ON MINOR CHARGE

Not knowing of the more serious charges pending against Horan, the police had booked him on a charge of conduct and he was later freed on $50 bonds. He is believed to have fled from the city.

The admissions obtained from prisoners, according to the police, directly involved the currency in the reduction of the slaying of two policemen and the wounding of a third by bombers early Wednesday. It was this outbreak the culmination of a long series of disorders, which started the present investigation and led to the raids in which more than 150 labor leaders and gunmen were seized by the police in the most spectacular roundup in the history of the city. Of those seized, besides those under indictment, the majority have been released because of lack of evidence.
